

TWO DAYS OF KING'S SPORT

Driving Club To Be Organized—Plans To Hold Trotting Meet.

JULY FIXED UPON

Janesville Will Regain the Place Among Horsemen It Once Had.

TO HOLD MATINEES

There is a plan now on foot among the horsemen of this city that practically assures Janesville of a two days' trotting meet and a series of matinees during the summer. The movement was started by the lovers of trotting horses, who are anxious to see Janesville regain her former place among the cities of the west that gave trotting meetings that had a national reputation.

At one time there was no city in the country that had a better reputation for giving first-class trotting meets than Janesville. The track was one of the fastest and best in the country and the liberal purses given by the Janesville Driving Park association, attracted horsemen from all parts of the United States.

Former Glory
This reputation will be one of the great factors in making the proposed meeting a success. Horsemen know the track, although not now in first-class shape can readily be put in order, and that Janesville has the best of accommodations, both for the horses and the owners. Nothing was ever held in Janesville that did as much to advertise it and bring it before the outside public as the trotting meets.

Will Form Driving Clubs
The plan now under consideration is the formation of an Amateur Matinee Driving club, to be a member of the State Association of Amateur Matinee Driving clubs. Clubs of this kind have already been formed in Milwaukee, Sheboygan, Green Bay, Marinette, Menominee, Appleton, Beaver Dam and Manitowish with a membership of about 1,000. These clubs have formed a state association and it is proposed to have this club become a member of the state association.

Will Call Meeting
The horsemen have been talking this matter over for some time and have reached the stage where it will be necessary to call a meeting for organization. This meeting will probably be called for some time the latter part of the week, and T. W. Fowler, of Sheboygan, secretary of the state association, will be here to meet those interested in the matter and help in the formation of a club. In other places the clubs hold matinees every two weeks in which the members compete for prizes.

Trotting in July
What the club proposes to do here, if it is organized, is to have besides their matinees, a two-day trotting meet, either July 3rd or 4th and 5th at which time they will have three races each day, and give money enough to insure bringing good horses here.

It is well-known under the existing conditions governing race meetings in regard to pool selling that a successful meeting cannot be given without some financial aid from the merchants of the city, and it all depends upon the amount of money that can be raised about town how much of a meeting can be given.

Will Cost Money
It will take considerable money to put the track in shape and fix up the buildings and stalls to accommodate the horsemen. There is to be no celebration in this city on July 4 and a race meeting would attract a large number of people from adjoining towns.

Many Fast Horses
There are still a number of fast horses owned in this vicinity and their owners are anxious for a chance to do a little racing. Among the possibilities of this meeting is a 2:15 pacing class, which would take in Nicholas J., 2:14 1-4, owned in Edgerton, Ira S., 2:16 1-2, owned in Clinton, and Aunt Laura, owned by J. L. Fisher, of this city. A pacing race with these three in it would be a close thing and would be a fight from start to finish.

To Hold Matinees
Matinees, like those the club propose to hold would be a great help in getting the horses in shape to compete in the state meet at Milwaukee in August where several $500 cups are offered as prizes.

The gentlemen that have this project in hand are very enthusiastic over it and there is very little doubt but that the club will be formed and that the meeting in July will be given by it.

Characteristics of DeWet
Philip Pienaar, a boer who has written a book entitled "With Steyn and De Wet," says that the latter general is uncouth in manner and careless to a degree in matters of dress. Lack of tact and abruptness in manner add to his unattractiveness, but he has an abundance of shrewdness and is not without dignity. Besides, it is chiefly owing to De Wet and Steyn that the war did not end with the fall of Pretoria.

PACKERS USE POLICE ESCORT

Raise Embargo Under Guard—Hotels with Strikers Will Not Buy Meat of the Packers.

Chicago, June 2.—The embargo on meat was partly raised today by the packers against whom the teamsters have declared a strike, by heavy deliveries of meat under police protection.

Hotels Join Strikers
Numerous hotels were threatened with the withdrawal of their ice supply by the teamsters and have agreed to purchase no more meats from the boycotted packers.

Relieves Meat Famine
This action relieves the uneasiness of hundreds of the guests who were fearful the meat supply would be cut off any moment. Many of the smaller shops still remain closed, half dead.

BOERS ACCEPT PEACE TERMS

Sign Articles at Pretoria and the English Cabinet Will Approve.

LONDON REJOICES

South African Prisoners To Be Returned Home as Soon as Possible, Free Men.

NO DEATH PENALTY

War began Oct. 11, 1899—Peace signed May 31, 1902. Duration, 2 years, 7 months and 23 days. British killed, 22,251. British invalided, 72,377. Boer losses not known. Cost to Great Britain, $125,000,000. British troops engaged, 325,000. Boer troops (estimated), 65,000.

London, June 2.—In the House of Commons this afternoon the government leader, Balfour, said that terms of peace with South Africa are that the Boers lay down their arms and recognize the King.

Prisoners To Be Freed
The Boer prisoners are to be brought back to South Africa as soon as possible without loss of liberty or property. The cabinet held a half hour session this morning to consider the form of the announcement of peace.

Enthusiastic Crowds
Dense crowds thronged Downing street and cheered the ministers enroute to the parliament. Minister Joseph Chamberlain received an ovation and cries of "you did it Joe," were heard.

Long Negotiations For Peace
The negotiations for peace began two years ago, but the first efforts to agree upon terms were unsuccessful. The Boers held out steadily for independence and the British, while willing to concede practically everything else needed to rehabilitate the South African Republic, persistently refused to even consider the question of Boer independence.

McKinley Offers Mediation
On March 13, 1900 President McKinley made an effort to extend the friendly offices of the United States in the interests of peace.

He informed Lord Salisbury that he would be glad in any friendly manner to aid in bringing about the desired result. To President McKinley's note Lord Salisbury replied that the government of Great Britain did not propose to accept the intervention of any power in the settlement of the South African affairs.

Interference Meant War
Lord Salisbury's reply to President McKinley was in effect a notification to the powers of Europe that intervention in behalf of the Boers would be resented even to the extent of war. The European powers accepted the note in that spirit and from that day all thought of European intervention, if it had existed at all, was abandoned.

SURRENDER TERMS.
London Paper Publishes Alleged Conditions of the Peace Pact.

London, June 2.—One London paper pretends to have definite information on the subject of peace terms. The Express says the terms are:

1. Surrender of arms.
2. Breakers of laws of warfare to throw themselves on king's clemency.
3. Banishment to be inoperative.
4. Burglars to get back their arms.
5. Some Boer leaders to be employed in new administration.
6. British government to meet war debts.
7. Boers to have adequate representation and a share of local government.

Hanna Not a Candidate.
Cleveland, June 2.—In reply to the question as to what he thought of this city as the place for holding the next Republican national convention, Senator Hanna said: "If I attempted to have the convention held here people would say that I was doing it for my own interests, and I am having a hard enough time now trying to put an end to the talk of my being a candidate for the presidency."

Kill Nonunionist.
Cincinnati, June 2.—Michael O'Donnell, blacksmith for the Emerson-Fisher Carriage company, was assaulted by unknown parties and died. As O'Donnell continued at work and was recognized as a leader of those opposing the pending strike, it is supposed that his murder is due to revenge. He leaves a widow and five small children.

Recover Drowned Man's Body.
Marquette, Mich., June 2.—The body of one of the two Carlson brothers, drowned in Lake Michigan last fall, with the two Lavine brothers, has been recovered. It makes the third body found after a search lasting practically ever since the quadruple fatality, seven months ago, and in which large sums of money have been expended.

A Louisville, Ky., girl was pushed from a window by an unknown man and killed by the fall.

CRITICAL POINT IN MINE STRIKE

Engineers, Pump Men and Firemen Join Unions' Ranks Today.

MINERS' VICTORY

Operators Claim Move Means Nothing to the Outcome—Mines Are Running.

VIOLENCE IS FEARED

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 2.—The critical moment in the strike of the anthracite miners was reached at seven this morning when according to reports received by President Mitchell, all miners, a great majority of the firemen, engineers and pumpmen deserted their places in accordance to the union's call and upon the refusal of the demand of this class, six thousand in number, for an eight hour day.

Operators Deny Victory
On the other hand the operators say that the strikers' claims of victory are hollow and that with the exception of the Hollenback colliery here all plants are being operated either with the regular men, non-union men or men from the company's offices.

No Violence Yet
Thus far no violence has been reported, but at Scranton, where the regular employees refused to obey Mitchell's call the greatest apprehension is felt that trouble will be encountered before the close of the day.

An Army of Police
An army of approximately 3,000 armed coal and iron policemen, sworn in under a law of the state of Pennsylvania is in the field ready to protect these men and the mining properties. There are also scattered throughout the country, it is said, about 1,000 men who are doing secret work for the companies. Every colliery in the coal belt has either a board or a barbed wire fence around it. At some of the mines "camp" cars are lying on the siding for the accommodation of nonunion men, most of whom will live within the colliery confines during the suspension.

RETIRED OFFICER ATTEMPTS MURDER

He Tries to Kill the Roumanian Premier in the Chamber of Deputies.

Bucharest, June 2.—Petroyici, a retired officer of the army, entered the Chamber of Deputies today and attempted to assassinate the Roumanian Premier. By-standers seized the assassin and frustrated his purpose.

ARREST MAKERS OF BOGUS COIN

Circulated Spurious Quarters and Halves in Indiana Village.

Lake, Ind., June 2.—A gang of counterfeiters that has been operating here for months has been broken up by the arrest of two men, Sorensen and Merrill, and the confiscation of their outfit. The prisoners were taken to Indianapolis. Officers are also on the track of the ringleader. The many spurious quarters and 50-cent pieces in circulation in eastern Illinois and Chicago have been traced to these men. Lake Village is near Bogus Island, a famous resort for counterfeiters in the early '80s.

Prayers Help Young Girl

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 2.—As Jessie Bltner, aged 12, was leaving the Christian Science Temple she was run down by Roy Shepler, who was driving a fast horse. She was struck on the head and the buggy wheels passed over her body. The child was carried back into the temple apparently dead. The Christian Scientists then prayed over her and twenty minutes later the child walked home with her parents. The reckless driver is in jail.

Breaks 100-Yard Record.

New York, June 2.—Arthur F. Duffy, the diminutive sprinter of Georgetown university signalled the 27th annual track and field championship of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletics of America by running the 100 yards in :09 3-5. This performance wipes out all previous records, no matter in what country, and demonstrates a possibility which heretofore has been considered beyond the prowess of modern athletics.

Long Sleep Puzzles Doctors.

Detroit, Mich., June 2.—Physicians of Windsor and vicinity are very much puzzled over the case of John Redmond of Anderson, a farmer, 54 years of age. He went to sleep nine days ago and has not awakened. All efforts to restore him to consciousness have been in vain. He walks in his sleep, drinks frequently, but eats little or no food, which causes the doctors to fear for his life.

Fourteen hundred dead have been taken from the ruins of Quezaltenango is the result of the earthquake some time ago.

WOLVERINES WON ATHLETIC MEET

Chicago Second, Wisconsin Third—Six Records Broken in Saturday's Contest at Chicago.

Chicago, June 2.—Michigan won its third successive big intercollegiate meet Saturday and its second under the Intercollegiate Conference Athletic association. Exclusive of a third in the high jump and all places in the broad jump, the score stood: Michigan, 36; Chicago, 20; Wisconsin, 18; Drake, 10; Minnesota, 9; Beloit, 8; Notre Dame and Iowa, 5 each; North-western, 3; Illinois, 3.

A crowd of over 5,000 college partisans, almost perfect weather and the best field of track and field athletes ever together in the west, made the meet an unqualified success.

Fred Moloney, captain of the Chicago team, was the star of the meet, winning eleven points for the maroon team and the all-around medal offered by the association.

Merrill Is Prominent
Ed Merrill, the famous Beloit star, won eight points for his college, but was not so prominent as in a meet of last year. He was allowed to compete after the eligibility committee found him a professional, and this trial, which was held this morning, may have thrown him off condition.

All Round Athletes
Michigan won on the all-around ability of its team. With the possible exception of last year, the Ann Arbor team was the best balanced ever seen in the West. The maize and blue won points in every event, but the 120 hurdles, the 220-dash, the discus and the hammer.

Records Broken
Six western records were broken in the 1.0-9 yard hurdles, the discus, the mile run, shot put, two-mile, and pole vault, and the record was tied in the 100-yard dash.

Beloit, Wis., June 2.—(Special)—Frank Saxton, mail clerk at the post-office was found at noon today lying on bed at his home with a bullet hole through his heart self-inflicted. The discovery was made by his children coming home to dinner from school. Saxton had been despondent from continued ill-health, and had been employed in the postoffice for five years and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Mr. Saxton is a brother-in-law of Fred L. Hausel, a baggageman on the Chicago & Northwestern between Janesville and DeKalb.

SEN. WHITEHEAD ON TAXATION

Starts at Beginning and Tells of the Origin of Commission.

CLEAR UP FACTS

Shows That the Statutes of the State Are Relics of Territory Days.

"CRAZY QUILT LAWS"

Senator John M. Whitehead presents the first of a series of letters on the subject of taxation to the readers of the Gazette. The Senator clearly states just what the situation that confronts the voters of Wisconsin is.

His opening paragraph explains the origin and reason for the first state tax commission and then goes on to quote from the laws of the state to show that the state laws are pieced together in a crazy quilt fashion and are made up largely from statutes that were in effect before Wisconsin was admitted as a state and are far from satisfactory.

Janesville, Wis., June 2, 1902. To The Gazette:

In the legislative session of 1897, the first Wisconsin State Tax Commission was created. Attempts to create such a commission had been made in the Legislature at previous sessions without success, but during the first year of Gov. Scofield's administration, the proposition was favorably considered and a law was passed which provided for the appointment of a Tax Commission of three persons, to hold office for one year.

The duties of the commission were defined in the law as follows: "1. They shall make a careful and complete compilation of all law bearing upon the subject of taxation now in force in the state of Wisconsin and of the decisions of the supreme court of said state relating to said laws."

"2. They shall procure, classify and arrange in convenient tabular form, full and pertinent statistics, showing as far as practicable, the amount raised for taxation in each taxing district in the state, the rates adopted, the proportion between true and assessed valuation, and such other information in reference to the practical operation of the present system of taxation in this state, as they may deem important and essential."

"3. They shall thoroughly investigate all complaints which may be made to them of illegal, unjust or excessive taxation, and shall endeavor to ascertain to what extent and in what manner, if at all, the present system is defective, unequal and oppressive."

"4. They shall avail themselves of all information afforded by the reports of the tax commissions of other states, and shall inquire into the system of state, county and municipal taxation in force in other states, especially those in which new methods of taxation have been introduced, with a view to ascertaining what changes, if any, in the tax laws of this state are expedient and desirable."

"5. They shall make such recommendation as to the revision of the tax laws of Wisconsin, or as to the enactment of new laws as they may deem necessary, in order to simplify, condense and improve the present system and equalize the burden of taxation upon all classes of property."

"6. They shall embody the results of their investigation in a report which shall be as plain, concise and comprehensible as possible."

The Governor appointed three men, Burr W. Jones, of Madison; K. K. Kennan, of Milwaukee, and George Curtis, Jr., of Merrill, to constitute the commission. At the session of 1899 the commission presented their report, which, according to expert students of taxation, possessed great merit. The history of the general property tax in this state, from the first enactment down to the date of the report, was carefully traced by the commission. The commissioners said:

"This system as formulated in our latest statutes and modified, construed and elaborated by the decisions of our supreme court, is largely an inheritance from our forefathers, though greatly changed and supplemented by the attempts of some fifty different legislatures to adapt it to the needs of a new and rapidly growing state."

The records show that the present discussion of the inequalities of taxation is not peculiar to modern conditions, and that early settlers of the state, who gave us the general property tax, were not content with its workings. The commissioners remarked:

"The governor's message to the legislature of 1841-42 set forth that the system of taxation throughout the territory is considered unequal, illegal and highly oppressive. His criticisms upon the system were so severe that that portion of his message was referred to a special committee of the legislature, who made a report in justification of the methods then in vogue."

As to the way legislation has been enacted let me illustrate by a quotation from this report:

"The origin and history of the Wisconsin tax system."

SEN. WHITEHEAD ON TAXATION

Starts at Beginning and Tells of the Origin of the Commission.

consin taxing system are not such as would lead one to expect any great degree of perfection in its requirements and details. The laws which constitute the basis of that system were first hastily compiled in 1849, at a time when the total assessed valuation of all property in the state was only 2 1/2 per cent. of what it now is and when the growth and future needs of the state could not be well foreseen. Those laws were copied largely from the early statutes of other states, which statutes have since been found to be crude and unsatisfactory. The tax laws have been rendered complicated and obscure to an almost hopeless degree by the enormous mass of legislation and legal decisions which has accumulated around them in the past fifty years. Lastly, it will be seen that the system of taxation in this state has never received any thorough and intelligent revision at the hands of men who had time and opportunity to study it as a whole. Undoubtedly much honest and well-meant labor has been expended from time to time by the law makers of the state in attempting to remedy the other obvious evils of our system; but the problem is so difficult, and its intelligent treatment involves such a vast amount of preliminary work and study that it has proven impossible to accomplish any great results in the short period of a legislative session.

Taxes were shown to be levied in five general jurisdictions, in the state, in the county, in the town, in the city (many cities being under special charter, and in the village, besides these, there were taxes in the yards and in the school districts (several kinds of the latter. Special problems pertaining to each kind were shown to exist. The state tax appeared to be insignificant, though levied in the jurisdiction inclusive of all, compared with the aggregate of all the local taxes. The commissioners said:

"The practical importance of the subject of local taxation to the citizens of this state does not seem to be appreciated. Of the twenty million dollars which are annually contributed by the tax-payers of the state, it seems probable that at least a million could be saved by better and more economical methods. The wastefulness and looseness of the present system are such as no business man would tolerate in his own business, or a moment. That such abuses are allowed to continue is not creditable to the intelligence and good sense of the people of the state, and can only be accounted for on the theory that the actual conditions are not known or understood."

"We have been deeply impressed by the fact that although over $20,000,000 are annually collected from the people of this state in the form of taxes there has been in the past but little of that systematic effort to reduce taxation to a system which we have found in many of the other states."

All the various taxes known to citizens of the state were described and the assessment of property for taxation and the evils of undervaluations, assessors were elaborately examined. As I shall have occasion to refer to assessments in latter communications, I will now merely mention a few of the remedial suggestions made by the commission, which have been put into effect by recent acts of the Legislature. Such recommendations were the following:

"1. Rigid supervision of assessments by tax commissioners or other special officers under the general direction of a state tax commissioner.
"2. Valuation of improvements on lands separately from the land itself.
"3. More rigid listing of personal property by owners, with heavy penalty, by increased assessment or otherwise, for refusal to make sworn statement."

The procedure for enforcing the collection of taxes was reviewed and various new methods of taxation were discussed.

Contagious Blood Poison

Is the name sometimes given to what is generally known as the BAD DIS-EASE. It is not confined to dens of vice or the lower classes. The purest and best people are sometimes infected with this awful malady through handling the clothing, drinking from the same vessels, using the same toilet articles, or otherwise coming in contact with persons who have contracted it.

It begins usually with a little blister or sore, then swelling in the groins, a red eruption breaks out on the body, sores and ulcers appear in the mouth, the throat becomes ulcerated, the hair, eye brows and lashes fall out; the blood becoming more contaminated, copper colored spots and pustular eruptions and sores appear upon different parts of the body, and the poison even destroys the bones.

S. S. S. is a Specific for this loathsome disease, and cures it even in the worst forms. It is a perfect antidote for the powerful virus that pollutes the blood and penetrates to all parts of the system. Unless you get this poison out of your blood it will ruin you, and bring disgrace and disease upon your children, for it can be transmitted from parent to child. S. S. S. contains no mercury or potash, but is guaranteed a strictly vegetable compound.

Write for our free home treatment book and learn all about Contagious Blood Poison. If you want medical advice give us a history of your case, and our physicians will furnish all the information you wish without any charge whatever.

STEP MOTHERS.

Marion Harland has a column in the Chicago Daily News, in which recently appeared the following question and answer:

"Will you kindly explain whether or not there is any bible authority opposing second marriage? If not, why does one denomination of the Christian church take that stand, inasmuch as they do not bless the marriage ring or say high nuptial mass when either party to the contract has been married before? I do not mean when either one has been divorced, but when the first husband or wife is dead. I can't understand the reason for that."

"Do you yourself believe (I have so much confidence in and respect for your opinion, that I should like to know your views) that a second marriage is not as sacred as the first? Is it not possible that in some cases the wife or husband is more loved, especially when the first marriage was contracted when both were very young? I know of cases where they are far happier."

"The reason I appeal to you, is that I had a discussion with a few friends, and they seemed to think that a second marriage is almost illegitimate from a Christian point of view."

AN ADMIRER.

I think you are entirely mistaken in the belief that any branch of the Christian church holds a second marriage (when the former marriage contract of either party has been dissolved by death,) as less holy than the first. I know of no such. Nor have I ever heard what is to me a shocking tenet brought forward until I read your letter. The bible is explicit in teaching that death frees the survivor from nuptial vows. It even recommends that the younger widows marry. You have been misinformed. As to the thought suggested in your closing paragraph it is to absurd to merit grave denial.

A second, a third, a fifth marriage is as sacred and as binding as the first, provided always that death has freed the parties from pre-contract."

A Gazette reader, forwarded it to this journal and says, "I hope to read it again some day in your paper. I wish every Christian paper in the land would publish it, and there would not be so many broken hearted step-mothers."

The Gazette may not be very good authority on step mothers, but observation suggests the belief that the duty and office is one of the most peculiar and trying that ever confronts the home.

Marriage is so much of a lottery, that people frequently draw blanks where they expected prizes, and bitter disappointment follows. The home that both anticipated, in loves young dream, is a home only in name and plighted vows become a mockery.

If death dissolves the union in early married life, by removing the wife, and mother, and the husband seeks another alliance, the chances are that the second choice will result in more care and a deeper sense of love and appreciation.

Child life adapts itself to conditions without complaint, and the new mother if a woman of heart, wins the love of childhood in the first honest effort.

Under these environments it is possible for the home life to develop into a haven of rest. There are many such homes where the step mother is the mother in its highest and holiest sense.

These are the favorable conditions for the new mother in the home, and they rarely apply where the contract is made later in life. The mother, however unhappy in her married life is rarely forsaken or criticized by the children, and as they grow up around her, she becomes the shrine at which they worship.

When death calls her out of the home, the memory lingers, and is always sacred. If a new mother attempts to take her place, she is usually regarded as an interloper, and in no sense a relative, while courtesy may be accorded, love is lacking, and the best effort to win is frequently disappointing.

The compact on the part of the father is regarded as a business compact, destitute of the finer sensibilities that contribute so largely to happiness.

Under these conditions the step mother has no occasion to be disappointed if the home and the new relations are not all she anticipated. She has violated no law for love is greater than law.

ENCOURAGING REPORT.

A good deal of encouragement to the manufacturing interests of the country is found in the detailed statement of commerce for the month of April and the ten months ending with April, just issued by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics. It shows that manufacturers' materials formed one half of the importations during the month of April, and in the ten months formed over 16 per cent of the total; while the exports of manufactures in the month of April formed 36.54 per cent of the total exports against 29.15 per cent in April, 1901, and for ten months ending with April 1902 they formed 28.55 per cent of total exports, as compared with 27.40 per cent in the corresponding months of the preceding fiscal year. The total value of manufacturers' materials imported in the ten months ending with April this year is $348,657,061, as against $230,801,407 in the corresponding months of last year, an increase of $117,855,654 or 51 per cent. Exports of manufactures, it will be observed, are nearly overtaking those of last year, the gain in the month of April alone being four and a half million dollars over April 1901, while for the 10 months the total value of manufactures exported falls but $5,486,814 below that for the corresponding month of last year. Manufacturers formed considerably more than one-third of the exports in the month of April, while for the 10 months the percentage which manufacturers form of the total exports is higher than in any preceding year except 1900.

In imports of manufacturers' materials the growth is found in almost every important class of articles. Chemicals, which are largely used in manufacturing, show a growth from 44-112 million dollars in the 10 months of last year to over 48 millions in the 10 months of the present fiscal year; raw cotton, from 39 million lbs. to 87 millions pounds; copper ore, from 8 millions dollars in value to over 12 millions; fibres, for use in manufacturing, from 18 millions dollars to 25 millions; hides and skins, from 37 millions to 49 million dollars; raw silk, from 23 million to 36 million dollars; tin, from 69 million pounds to 64 million pounds; leaf tobacco, from 12 million pounds to 15 millions pounds; wool from less than 10 million dollars to over 15 million dollars.

SPOONER AND WHITEHEAD ENDORSED.

The action of the First District Congressional convention in endorsing both Spooner and Whitehead, was a worthy deed, and will have a tendency to put the election of those two distinguished gentlemen beyond all peradventure, for it is tolerably certain that the example thus set will be followed pretty generally all over the state.

There is no question about the feeling that prevails in regard to Senator Spooner. He is the people's favorite in every sense of the word.

The endorsement of Senator Whitehead will have a tendency to put to rest the absurd stories and fabrications that have been floating about the state for the last two months or more.

Timid Republicans throughout the state will not take fresh courage and will have their faith renewed and their eyesight restored by the decisive action of the First District, and the conservative element of the party will be greatly strengthened and rejuvenated.

Senator Spooner will succeed himself. Senator Whitehead will be the next governor of Wisconsin.—Eau Claire Leader.

RULE OR RUIN.

Senator Whitehead is a Republican who manfully defends his Republican faith, and gives his reason for voting against the Stevens Bill. He can and will justify every vote he ever gave in the legislature in the same way. Senator Whitehead has nothing to conceal and is willing to take the Republicans of the state in partnership. Instead of running a political machine as an annex to his Republicanism, like LaFollette, Whitehead believes in the party and works unceasingly for its advancement and success. LaFollette uses the party as his personal instrument. Because men like Whitehead could not approve the Stevens Bill, LaFollette would not permit them to have a place in the politics of Wisconsin. This is absolutely what the present controversy means and there can be no question about it. The governor must and will be dictator, if he isn't, he accepts the ruin order of things.—Onalaska Record.

The Hartford Press reminds Gov. LaFollette that his lieutenants may as well keep out of Washington county. The governor is held responsible for legislating Congressman Barney out of office, and the county has no use for him. There are others.

The city of Evansville has a candidate for sheriff as well as a candidate for governor. The friends of the latter can hardly expect to nominate both, and if by chance they should lose both, there won't be glory enough left to fill a small sized vacancy.

The atmosphere in the vicinity of Edgerton is still blue. If LaFollette is defeated his shouters in that neck of the woods will erect a monument dedicated to his memory, where they can worship without fear of molestation. For blind idolatry to a lost cause Edgerton caps the climax.

The State Board of Control as well as the Governor, will have a busy time explaining what was the matter with McCaughy, the Waupun prison warden.

The President's Memorial address at Arlington, was intensely American. It was characteristic of the man, and worthy place in the annals of her history.

Senator Hoar should be able to say all that is worth saying in 15 minutes, when he replies to Senator Spooner, on the Philippine question.

E. Benjamin Andrews succeeded in getting himself well advertised, before he decided to remain in Nebraska.

Senator Whitehead had the pleasure of speaking in Lancaster on Memorial day. The people discovered that he was not so bad as painted.

PRESS COMMENT.

Milwaukee Journal: While Senator Spooner is speaking in the United States senate his enemies are working in Wisconsin.

Milwaukee News: It seems that Warden McCaughy's brand of "reform" and the brand the state board of control has on tap didn't mix.

Milton Telephone: The magnificent endorsement of Senator Whitehead in the County and Congressional conventions indicates plainly that the Republicans of Southern Wisconsin are not opposed to a man because he is good, as well as able.

Marshfield Times: Before you decide to vote for LaFollette delegates to the state convention, remember that a vote of the kind is a nail in the political coffin of John C. Spooner. One of the two must go, and the question is whether you want to retain LaFollette, the politician, or Spooner, the statesman.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The papers are poking a good deal of fun at Mayor Tom L. Johnson, who is said to be the possible choice of Colonel Bryar for the democratic nomination for president. As a matter of fact, however, there are some good points about Mr. Johnson, and at least it cannot be said that he has made his fortune out of politics.

The Milwaukee Journal is evidently very desirous of side-tracking Senator Whitehead as the Stalwart candidate for governor, even going to the length of stating that Senator John C. Spooner is endeavoring to throw him down and put Congressman Barney forward as the standard bearer. The Journal is destined to be disappointed. Probably Sen. Spooner is not troubling himself about gubernatorial candidates and quite certainly Mr. Barney will not supplant Senator Whitehead.—Waukesha Freeman.

Efficiency cuts but little figure in the management of state institutions when it is confronted with the en-

OLDSMOBILES worth $1,000

ARE SELLING AT . . . $680.00

It may be interesting to know why the Olds Motor Works can put out a machine worth $1,000 for $650. A visit to any one of the three Olds Motor plants will easily demonstrate why they are able to do this. They are building not a few, but thousands, and are therefore contented with a small margin on each machine. Their facilities are unequalled anywhere in the world; smaller manufacturers cannot afford such facilities, and consequently purchasers of machines made by them must pay the extra cost of fitting and trying each piece or part by hand, instead of having each part a perfect standard, a result which enables the Olds company to produce the best at a close price. Nor do they ask their customers to pay $150 extra for advertising; their machines themselves being their best and most efficient advertisements.

FRANK H. BLODGETT, of this city, is agent in this locality for the Oldsmobile and is also the owner of one of these machines.

mity of ringsters and politicians. They would place at the head of insane hospitals and penal institutions not only inexperienced, but positive incompetence, providing servility to their interests be incessantly manifested. The ability to successfully manage state institutions is an accomplishment that has not been gained in political schools or by accident. It is the study of a lifetime. The office demands other than the knowledge of how to run ward caucuses and conventions, and politicians should seek for plunder in other and less injurious directions.

Hudson Star Times: By their fruit shall ye know them. In the city of Janesville a determined effort was made by the half breeds to give John M. Whitehead a mortal stab in the household of his friends. Not being able to injure him through the agency of the republican party, they systematically induced democrats to go to the caucuses and vote against him. Such are the men who follow blindly the lead of a chief who proclaims himself a political reformer.

DEATH CALLED MANY CITIZENS

Mrs. Ruth Whitford, Willard Slightam,
Grace Van Pool, C. F. A. John, son Pass to Sleep Eternal.

Mrs. Ruth Whitford, preceptress of Milton College and widow of the late President W. C. Whitford, closed her eyes in death's sleep last Friday night and impressive funeral services were held from the Seventh Day Baptist church in Milton, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Whitford had been identified with the life of the academy and college at Milton for the past half century and was as widely known and as universally loved by the students as her late husband.

Mrs. Whitford had been ill for some time, but was able to attend her husband's funeral, which was held recently. She was seventy-three years of age, having been born in Deerfield, Oneida county, N. Y., June 15, 1829. Her maiden name was Ruth Hemphill and her early education was completed at Alfred University, from which institution she was graduated in 1848. At the time of her marriage, March 23, 1852, she was engaged as a teacher at Shiloh, N. Y. Mr. Whitford being principal of the school.

The greater part of Mrs. Whitford's life was devoted to teaching, a work for which she was admirably qualified. She began teaching in Alleghany county, N. Y., when but fourteen years of age. She was identified as teacher and preceptress with several schools and academies in New York and since coming to Wisconsin with her husband in 1856, she had taught classes in Milton College until within the past few years.

Mrs. Whitford was actively interested in every phase of educational work and was her husband's able assistant in all the positions of trust which he held. She was a woman of superior culture, possessing a highly trained moral and religious nature, and her death is sincerely mourned. She leaves one son, Milton C. Whitford, and one adopted daughter, Elizabeth A. Steer.

GRACE VAN POOL
Grace Van Pool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. VanPool, died at the home of her parents, 6 Oakland avenue last night at 12 o'clock, her death, being caused by a relapse after an attack of scarlet fever. Little Grace was three and one-half years old and was the pride of the household. About three weeks ago the child was taken ill with scarlet fever, but recovered from the disease and the quarantine was raised from the home. Later she caught a severe cold which brought on an aggravated throat trouble and this caused her death.

Funeral services will be held from the home, 6 Oakland avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Jas. Churn, pastor of the First M. E. church, will officiate.

C. F. A. JOHNSON
C. F. A. Johnson, husband of Harriet Campbell Hart Johnson, a former resident of this city, died at his home in Long Beach, Cal., May 27. Mr. Johnson was seventy-four years of age and had been in feeble health for some time. He was at one time mayor of Long Beach and his administration was marked by the spirit of progression and the advancement of the city's best interests. He was exceptionally well-informed and took an active interest in municipal affairs up to the time of his death. He had retired from active business life but held large property interests in Long Beach and in the orange growing districts.

Mrs. Johnson has many friends in this city where she formerly lived with her adopted parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gray. Mr. Gray was with his daughter at the time of her husband's death, having made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson for several winters past. He now expects to remain in California permanently.

Willard John Slightam
This morning at 12:15 death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Slightam, 301 Cherry St. and bore away little Willard John Slightam. The deceased baby was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Slightam and was welcomed to the family circle only four weeks ago. He had been ailing since last Wednesday. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of the little one's grandfather, Thomas Hemming, 252 Lincoln street.

MRS. A. R. CASWELL
Funeral services for the late Mrs. Anna Rogers Caswell, wife of former Congressman L. B. Caswell, were held at Fort Atkinson this afternoon. Among those who assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of the late noble woman were Mrs. C. S. Jackman and Mrs. Ada P. FOR ESTABLISHING INSURANCE RATES

Leaf Tobacco Men Hold Meeting to Decide Question—Eighteen Sign Trust Resolution.

At a special meeting of the Janesville Leaf Tobacco Dealers' association held on Saturday evening, the question of forming a local stock insurance company was discussed and steps were taken toward the formation of such a company. Members of the association were present at the meeting stated that they knew where $30,000 of the desired $100,000 capital stock could be secured and it was decided to canvass the city to secure subscriptions for the balance of the stock.

Resolution Favoring Trusts

Samuel Grundy introduced a resolution to the effect that the leaf tobacco dealers' and business men' of Janesville declare themselves as not opposed to combinations of capital into trusts when organized for the purpose of economizing in the cost of production and distribution of products but are unalterably opposed to the combination of capital into trusts which take advantage of the law which allows them to capitalize at many times their valuation, to issue stock to the full amount of their capitalization and to sell their watered stock to the public, thus creating a fighting fund to be used to crush honest competition and to corrupt legislation.

Against Conspiracy

The resolution further condemned the practice of such combinations in lowering the price of their products below the cost of production in territory where competition exists and at the same time correspondingly raising the price in territory does not exist or has already been destroyed, thereby enabling them to destroy all competition. Such business methods are declared to be a conspiracy, in restraint of trade and commerce, a menace to honest enterprise and good government.

Governed By Law

The resolution also embodied the belief that as all powers and privileges granted to incorporated bodies, come from the commonwealth, conditions should be prescribed by law which would compel them to do business upon an honest valuation. The signers of the resolution pledge themselves to act with the National Cigar Leaf Association and to invite the cooperation of all men everywhere in the fight against the encroachment of combinations in restraint of trade and commerce.

Did Not Adopt It

The association deemed it wisest not to adopt the resolution as an organization, but to sign it as individual dealers, the vote being ten to nine and one not voting. As personal agents, however, eighteen dealers have signed the resolution and only six are opposed to it. Many business men, other than tobacco dealers, have signed the resolution.

Stomachs on Stills.

The man who puts on stilts does not increase his actual stature by the breadth of a hair. He feels taller while he's on the stilts, and when he's off he feels shorter than he ever felt. Stimulants are the stilts of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them afterward.

The need of the man who uses a stomach "weak" is not stimulation, but strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery perfectly answers that need. It cures the diseases of the digestive and nutritive system which make the stomach "weak." It enables the digestion and assimilation of food, so that the body receives the nutrition on which depends its strength.

"I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for stomach trouble," writes Clarence Carney, Taylorstown, Louisiana. "It did me so much good that I didn't take any more. I can eat most anything now. I am so well pleased with it that I can't tell you how much I like it. I tried a whole lot of things before I wrote to you. A gentleman told me of your medicine, and how it cured his wife. I thought I would try a bottle of it. Am now glad that I did, for I do not know what I should have done had it not been for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; You lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

The sluggish liver is made active by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

WHEN YOUR APPETITE FAILS YOU

It's high time to take a health inventory, rather than heap melancholy abuse on the waiter and the eating house. If normal, your appetite is sound. If not, it isn't, that's all.

From an Authority:

"In my whole experience I have never known a case of tuberculosis of the lungs that has not been preceded by chronic dyspepsia. I have never known a case of cancer, Bright's disease or diabetes that did not follow upon some form of stomach disturbance. Nine out of every ten persons have dyspepsia. It is the first manifestation of lowered vitality.

Errors of eating have filled the hospitals, asylums and cemeteries. They are the true explanations of universal sickness."

URGES REVISION OF THE TARIFF

Mr. Crumpacker States the Fundamental Principles of Protection.

HOME INDUSTRY COMES FIRST

American Workmen Should Not Be Placed in Competition with Cheap
Labor of Europe—No Action Expected at This Session.

Washington, June 2.—"There is a general demand for tariff revision on protection lines," said Representative Crumpacker. "The purpose of protection is to stimulate competition among home industries and to give the American workmen protection against the cheaper labor of Europe. When protection goes beyond this it is wrong, and has a disastrous effect economically. There should be a revision of the tariff on the lines indicated, and it should have been done at this session of congress. It is too important a matter to be done hurriedly, and as the next session is a short one and much important business must be done the tariff question will not be touched, in my judgment, until the next congress."

"I notice that many state conventions have declared for tariff revision, and it is clear to the ordinary mind that this should be done when it is possible for American manufacturers to sell their goods abroad cheaper than they do in this country. This is true of the iron industry. The shipbuilder who has the contract for constructing the 20,000-ton freighters for President Hill, the railroad magnate, said recently it was possible for him to go abroad, purchase iron products, bring them into this country, pay the tariff on them, defray the expenses of transporting these goods across the ocean, and then secure them cheaper than the same goods can be purchased in this country. This is an unanswerable argument why there should be a revision of the tariff."

ISTHMIAN CANAL

President to Have Choice of Routes
for the Waterway.

Washington, June 2.—Anti-canal sentiment in the senate has united upon the Spooner substitute for the Nicaragua bill, which throws the choice of route upon the president, and as an opening gun to the debate which begins this week the minority of the canal committee filed its report. It was prepared and submitted by Senator Kittredge, and goes into the various features of the canal question at length. The report recommends that the Spooner amendment be adopted by the senate, and then argues that the Panama route is superior to the Nicaragua. It recommends that the report of the isthmian canal commission be followed on all technical questions, as it is the opinion of the highest competent experts, and states that all in all the testimony before the committee nothing appears against it. The minority also finds that the isthmian canal commission's earlier report in favor of the Nicaragua route were based wholly upon the impossibility, at that time, of acquiring the property and concessions of the Panama Canal company at a reasonable price.

Michigan War Claims.

Washington, June 2.—The comptroller of the treasury has reopened the case of the claim of the state of Michigan for interest paid by it prior to August 29, 1865, and discount suffered on account of war loan bonds issued by the state for the purpose of raising funds for arming and equipping of troops in the war of the rebellion. The comptroller reserves the action of the second comptroller of May 12, 1888, disallowing the claim, and finds that the state is entitled under its claim to $255,397. The account will be restated and certified to congress for an appropriation.

Attorney General Hamlin, who is here to present similar claims for the state of Illinois, amounting to more than $600,000, regards the decision in the Michigan case as favorable to the claims he has presented, and expects to collect his claims before he returns to Springfield.

Oppose Submarine Boats.

Washington, June 2.—Three important naval officers took such strong grounds against submarine torpedo boats in their present stage of development before the senate naval committee that it is possible no appropriation will be made at this session for the purchase of craft of this type. Rear Admiral Rowles thought it inadvisable to experiment further with the Holland boat, while Admiral Bradford quoted Admiral Von Tirpitz, head of the German navy, as saying: "I am so sure that they are of no value that I refuse to waste any more time in experimenting with them." Captain Sigbee expressed the opinion that it would be well to go slow for the present and not purchase thirty or forty submarine boats.

Reduces Army Strength.

Washington, June 2.—By direction of the president, Secretary Root has issued a general order decreasing the strength of our permanent military establishment and changing the ratio of its make-up as provided in the general order issued last May to carry out the army reorganization law. Under the general order of last May the total strength of the army was fixed at 77, 257 men. The order just issued reduces this figure to 66,497—a reduction of 10,760.

Portfolio for Cortelyou.

Washington, June 2.—The advocates of the bill recently passed by the senate creating a department of commerce hope to secure a day this week for its consideration by the house. Should the bill become a law, it is understood that the new cabinet officer will be George Bruce Cortelyou of New York, secretary to the president.

Cuban Flag for President.

Washington, June 2.—Gen. White, formerly military governor of Santiago, Cuba, presented the president with a large Cuban battle flag. The presentation was made at the request of the officers of the Fourth Guantanamo regiment. This is said to have been the first Cuban flag that was raised on the island beside the American colors.

Mr. Knox Improves.

Washington, June 2.—Attorney General Knox is slowly recovering from the cold he contracted on his recent trip from Pittsburgh. Although he is still quite weak, his condition is reported to be distinctly improved.

Going to Adirondacks.

Washington, June 2.—Alice Roosevelt has accepted the invitation of her cousin, James Roosevelt, to spend the month of August at his camp near Lake Saranac in the Adirondack mountains.

FAST AUTO RUNS AMUCK AT STATEN ISLAND MEET

Steel Spokes Penetrate Man's Body, Killing Him Instantly—Many Persons Injured.

New York, June 2.—A powerful electric automobile built for the sole purpose of breaking the kilometer and mile records for electric machines at the speed tests of the Automobile Club of America at Grant City, Staten Island, swerved when within a few hundred yards of finishing one of the fastest miles ever made by any kind of a machine, and plunging into a crowd of sightseers, hurled them to the right and left with frightful force.

One man was killed outright. The sharp nose of the machine hit him in the chest, as he struggled to get out of the way, and as he fell the steel spokes of one of the wheels, having rid themselves of their wooden rim, entered his body at three different points, killing him instantly and mangle his body.

Seven persons, including two women, are known to have been injured by the plunge of the big machine, and it is estimated that at least twenty others sustained slight injuries.

A trust will be incorporated, and to this corporation Mr. Cole will turn over real estate and mining property worth at least $350,000. The interest on this sum is to be divided as follows: Fifty per cent to evangelistic work, 25 per cent for buildings and improvements, and the balance for charities. The trustee will be the Rev. Frost Craft, pastor of Trinity Methodist church; the Rev. Charles B. Allen of Cameron Methodist church, and Albert Cole, a son of the benefactor.

A Miraculous Feat.

"It seemed that nothing short of a miracle could save my little daughter from an untimely death," says City Marshall A. H. Malcolm, of Cherokee, Kan. "When two years old she was taken with stomach and bowel trouble and despite the efforts of the best physicians we could procure, she grew gradually worse and was pronounced incurable. A friend advised and after giving it a few days she began to improve and finally fully recovered. She is now past five years of age and the very picture of health."

LONDON CELEBRATES.

Residents of the Capital Go Wild Over the News.

London, June 2.—War in South Africa is over. All London is in the streets shouting peace and singing "God Save the King."

Lord Kitchener's dispatch stated that the boer leaders had signed articles of surrender. It was rapidly flashed all over the kingdom.

The effect was marvelous. The feeling of suspense and even doubt suddenly gave place to a great wave of joy. The entire nation plunged into a wild celebration.

Coming as it does on the eve of the national festivities incident to the coronation of King Edward, the news had aroused a patriotic fervor that will make the month one long to be remembered by Britons.

Rejoicing Is Universal.

The scenes in London surpassed even the wild enthusiasm of the Mafeking night, and of the universal rejoicing of Ladysmith night. The streets were jammed with shouting, singing men, women and children. Almost every other one was waving a small Union Jack at the end of a cane or an umbrella.

It was remarkable where these flags came from. Before 5 o'clock not one was to be seen. In half an hour's time thousands were waving in the hands of the king's loyal subjects.

It was first known in West End shortly before 5 o'clock. The correspondent happened to be at Mrs. Ronald's, in Cadogan place, when, in the midst of some delightful music, the hostess suddenly arose and announced the news. It was brought by Lady Lister-Kaye. All arose to their feet.

Mme. Nordica Sings.

Mme. Nordica, who happened to be present, was led to the piano, and amid great excitement she sang a verse of "God Save the King." It need hardly be said there was no more singing after that. Never has been seen people more genuinely delighted.

The usual storm of rain that comes on about 5 o'clock every afternoon did its best to dampen the ardor and enthusiasm of the people, but failed ignominiously. On every corner knots of people stood eagerly discussing the joyful tidings. In the hotels there was an air of excitement, in marked contrast with the placidity of a London Sunday.

With the approach of evening the streets became more and more congested. Every bus had its top loaded with shouting people, who were cheered vociferously by those in the street.

Flags Float Everywhere.

Thousands upon thousands of flags were waved by surging thousands, while from hotels and office buildings large flags were flung to the wind. When darkness fell many gas and electric light illuminations which were in place for the coronation days were flashed out in beautiful designs. The Carlton presented a brilliant scene. It seemed as if all the West End had gone there for dinner. The dining-room and restaurant were packed the whole evening, while the palm room was filled to overflowing, and even the entrance hall in Pall Mall was pressed into service for a part of the overflow.

The general feeling was one of great rejoicing and many toasts were drunk during the evening. It goes without saying that the orchestra by general request played patriotic airs, ending with "Rule Britannia" and "God Save the King," when everybody arose and sang the song through several times.

In other restaurants similar scenes were enacted. At Prince's the orchestra played all the patriotic tunes. It anew. The diners sang "God Save the King."

It was indeed a night of popping corks and bumpers in fashionable restaurants, hotels and clubs.

At the approach of midnight the crowd grew more boisterous and the celebration was still in full swing at the usual hour of retiring.

Gain to Britain.

The result of the war adds to the British domains 167,465 square miles of territory, an area equivalent to all the New England states, New York and Pennsylvania, rich in gold and diamond mines and with other natural resources of enormous value.

Moreover, it adds an important link to the Cape-to-Cairo chain of possessions, the possibilities of which in the future development of the continent of Africa cannot be estimated by the present generation.

The newly acquired territory had before the war a population of 350,000. While this has been considerably reduced, it is reasonable to expect that peace and a liberal government will quickly restore prosperity and attract immigration.

Comfort Up to Date.

The most recent application of the electric current is that of taking the place of the old-time bed-warmer. The modern implement consists of a coil of wire covered with asbestos and the electric current passing through the wires heats up the material.

Mardi Gras for Havana.

Several wealthy members of the American Club of Havana have organized the Havana Mardi Gras Company, the purpose of which is to give in that city every year a spectacular carnival like those given in New Orleans.

Oriental Grandiloquence.

The Prince of Wales was once extolled by an oriental subject as "great thief," under the impression that this was the highest possible compliment. Another monarch was named "the protector of all vegetables, regulator of the seasons, absolute master of the ebb and flow of the sea."

World's Fair Kelle Burns.

Another world's fair relic has gone up in smoke. The good ship Progress, which proudly rode the outer lagoon, equipped as a modern whaler, was burned to the water's edge in the harbor at South Chicago. It is not known whether the fire was accidental or otherwise. The Progress was launched at New Bedford in 1899, and for several generations battled the waves of the North Atlantic.
